Back-to-School Shopping

Summer is ending. School is starting again.

It is time to go shopping. Do you know what you will need?

Most schools open in August or September.

A backpack can help you keep your stuff together.

Where

Where do you get your school things? Your parents may take you to a shop.

They may help you pick out what you need online. You can do this on a computer.

Make a list of what you need before you go.

It's important that parents shop with you.

Extras

Do you have a backpack? It keeps your things together.

Do you bring food? A lunchbox is good to have.

There are other kinds of bags that work, too.

Many lunchboxes will keep your food cold.
